

Introducing Lancôme Show by Alber Elbaz, a collection of four iconic mascaras and their matching shadow palettes, redesigned by fashion legend Alber Elbaz. We've rounded up a few fashionably coordinated NYC hot spots inspired by each mascara.

Hypnôse Doll Lashes

Have a fun and flirty night out in the Lower East Side with the ultimate party girl.

Do

Hester Street Fair

Hester St. at Essex
hesterstreetfair.com

Drink

Experimental Cocktail Club

191 Chrystie St.
experimentalcocktailclubny.com

Eat

Beauty & Essex

146 Essex St.
☎ 212 614 0146
beautyandessex.com

Party

Hotel Chantelle

92 Ludlow St.
☎ 212 254 9100
hotelchantelle.com

Have a fashionable treasure-hunt through some 60 clothing, accessories, and food vendors at this popular Lower East Side fair on Saturdays from late spring to late fall. Pick up vintage couture statement pieces with flea-market price tags (some as low as $20), and check out unique handmade items, many of which are ethically sourced. Get an outfit-making clip or even a great little evening handbag.

nymag.com/listings/stores/hester-street-fair/

Step into a “un joyeux bordel,” or a merry mess, in this Parisian import inspired by NYC’s craft cocktail scene. Conjuring 1920s Paris, this spot from Frenchmen Romée de Goriainoff, Olivier Bon, and Pierre-Charles Cros is decked out with low-hanging lamps and vintage Hindustan wall murals. DJs spin jazz and funk while bartenders mix everything from Buffalo Trace bourbon to exotic Indonesian rum Batavia arrack.

nymag.com/listings/bar/experimental-cocktail-cl/

Cruise past the jeweler’s vitrines at the entryway into a hidden jewel box of early-60s glam dripping in chandeliers. Chef Chris Santos of the Stanton Social seems to have mastered the formula for a good-times restaurant, from well-made cocktails to inventive bites to free-flowing pink Champagne in the powder room. Try the crostini with ricotta, honey, nectarines, and spicy chile, and the box of doughnuts for dessert.

nymag.com/listings/restaurant/beauty-essex/

Check in to this LES hotspot via an unmarked door that leads into a space recalling a French World

War II safe house with retro furnishings. At the bar, friendly mixologists sling modern twists on old-school classics. Try the Pineapple Express (pineapple, jalapeno tequila, cane syrup, and grenadine), the Whisky Tango (their spin on a whisky sour), or the Oscar Mike (an old-fashioned with honey).

nymag.com/listings/bar/hotel-chantelle/

Hypnôse Star

Cruise past the doorman, sip champagne, and spot celebs with this stylish girl-about-town in Soho and the West Village.

Do

American Two Shot

135 Grand St.
☎ 212 925 3403
americantwoshot.com

Drink

A60

60 Thompson St.
☎ 877 431 0400
thompsonhotels.com

Eat

Minetta Tavern

113 MacDougal St.
☎ 212 475 3850
minettatavernny.com

Party

Finale

199 Bowery
☎ 212 980 3011
finalenyc.com

Hunt for one-of-a-kind finds and attention-getting outfits in this schizophrenic space that sells everything from Joan Didion books to freshly brewed Nicaraguan coffee. On the racks, browse an eclectic collection ranging from floral midribs by Shakuhi (from $185) to sparkly Novis party dresses ($1,345) to Chromat zip-on harnesses ($175), and more.

nymag.com/listings/stores/american-two-shot/

Gaining access to hotelier Jason Pomeranc's elegant members-only rooftop bar might be easier if you're an A-lister, but would-be partiers can also score a key card by getting a room. Think like a guest of a guest to chill in this exclusive 13th-floor terrace featuring plush patio furniture and awesome views of midtown and lower Manhattan. Savor the skyline with some fresh exotic fruit cocktails and spicy Thai appetizers.

nymag.com/listings/bar/a60/

Order up the $26 Black Label burger at this revival hotspot from Keith McNally situated in a corner space on MacDougal Street.

This West Village pub first opened in 1937, attracting neighborhood layabouts and hangers-on, from Ernest Hemingway and Ezra Pound to E. Cummings and Dylan Thomas. Checkerboard floors and silhouette cutouts from the '30s add to the stylishly au courant feel.

nymag.com/listings/restaurant/minetta-tavern/

Party with starlets and sequin-wearing downtown denizens at this 6,000-square-foot superclub from legendary nightlife impresarios Eugene Remm, Mark Birnbaum, and Michael Hirtenstein (a.k.a. EMM Group) and Ibiza import Pacha. Grab a cocktail under the neon lights and don't be surprised if you see Icona Pop look-alikes performing on the poles. Stake out a spot on the second tier near the no-reservations tables for the best view in the house.

nymag.com/listings/bar/finale/

Hypnôse Drama

Dial up the drama in the Meatpacking District and Chelsea with a girl who takes spontaneous fun to the next level.

Do

Natasha, Pierre, and the Great Comet of 1812

439 W. 13th St.
☎ 866 811 4111
kazinonyc.com

Drink

The Tippler

425 W. 15th St.
☎ 212 206 0000
thetippler.com

Eat

Manon

407 W. 14th St.
☎ 212 596 7255
manon-nyc.com

Party

Boom Boom Room

848 Washington St.
☎ 212 645 4646
standardhotels.com

See the “tsars” of downtown theater at this immersive production of “War and Peace” in a massive set designed by The Box. Brush up on your Tolstoy with this electro-pop update happening in 6,000-square-foot supper club that doubles as a full room stage outfitted with red leather banquettes, velvet curtains, and framed art. Share vodka shots with performers who blur the lines between audience and cast.

Head to the lower level of the Chelsea Market for an underground space run by Paul Tanguay and Tad Carducci, or The Tippling Brothers. Channeling a bygone era, the set-like space features brick archways and cast-iron fixtures, oriental rugs, and playful Sistine Chapel knockoffs complemented by an old-timey menu. Try inventive drinks like The Crippler composed of rye, rum, and BBQ bitters, or The Screaming Greenie.

nymag.com/listings/bar/the-tippler/

Amp up the glam factor at this new Meatpacking eatery from the team behind Brasserie Pushkin. Dine on Public veteran Tae Strain’s inventive menu and cocktails by Aaron Polsky amid crystal chandeliers, overstuffed leather couches, Corinthian columns, and a bar made of glowing blue glass. Try the Denver lamb loin or Long Island duck breast—and finish with pastry creations from a former EMP staffer.

Party in the pinnacle of the Meatpacking’s glittering nightlife district at Andre Balazs’ hotel club, which opened four years ago with a bang: Some likened the celebrity-studded scene to the heydays of Studio 54. Take in jaw-dropping views from one of the city’s most well-designed rooms—if you can land a spot on the curated guest list. (Otherwise, there’s always Le Bain next door.)

Définicils

Exude poise and elegance with a girl who always rolls like a socialite from the UES to the UWS.

Do

Fivestory

18 E. 69th St.
☎ 212 288 1338
fivestoryny.com

Drink

Roof Garden Café and Martini Bar

The Metropolitan Museum of Art
1000 Fifth Ave.
☎ 212 535 7710
metmuseum.org

Eat

Monkey Bar

60 E. 54th St.
☎ 212 308 2950
monkeybarnewyork.com

Party

Above 6

6 Columbus Cir.
☎ 212 204 3000
thompsonhotels.com

Tucked on East 69th Street just off of Madison Avenue, this third-floor boutique spans two floors—reaching to the fifth story. Channeling French concept shop Colette, the bi-level retail space fuses buzzy designers, like Preen and Suno with traditional tailoring and luxurious Loro Piana cashmere. Head up to this stylish aerie for statement pieces to punch up the mix, like a funky silicon bib necklaces by Ek Thongprasert.

nymag.com/listings/stores/five-story/

Take the elevator up to the fifth floor via the European Sculpture and Decorative Arts galleries to unwind with breathtaking views of Central Park. Refresh with a classic gin or vodka martini or try one of the artful cocktails, like the Gola Ganda featuring traditional Pakistani shaved ice with a choice of pomegranate, rosewater, or mango syrup over vodka.

Hang with socialites, VIPs, and media personalities at this sister venue to one of the city's most sought-after reservations, the Waverly Inn. Double-distilled old New York, there's a "who's who" mural of the Jazz Age by Ed Sorel, as well as Charlie Wala's famous 1950s monkey mural of chimps shaking up banana daiquiris. Try one of the experimental cocktails, like the Chinatown daiquiri spiced with Sriracha sauce.

nymag.com/listings/restaurant/monkey-bar01/

Watch the sunset flare off the neighboring buildings or relax under the shimmering nighttime ambience of candles and city lights at this rooftop lounge perched 14 floors above Columbus Circle in a Pale Male-worthy nook. Designed with an understated Japanese aesthetic and spacious seating, the pillow-strewn, ottomans are arranged in small conversational districts perfect for sipping well-constructed cocktails.

nymag.com/listings/bar/above-6/

